PARIS, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, OCT. 24, 1905.

NUMBER 85.

Resurrected.

The heretofore sleepy old town of Frankfort has awakened. A commercial club of 400 members has been organized and everybody has their shoulder to the wheel in an effort to push the business interests of the Capitol City. A free excursion train is being run over the Midland once a week, and a free excursion boat plys the Kentucky river for fifty miles above the city. What an object lesson to Paris merchants and business men. Are we doing anything to help Paris? Which in spite of neglect, push and enterprise, is slowly but surely destined to be an important commercial and industrial city. Look at Winchester, Maysville, Mt. Sterling and Richmond with their commercial clubs, each striving to induce capital to come and industrial enterprises to locate within their borders. Wake up merchants, business men, and get a move on yourselves and not be distanced in the great race of commercialism.

R. E. D. Boxes Ordered Numbered.

The Postoffice Department at Washington has ordered Postmaster J. L. Earlywine to have all boxes on the 11 Bourbon Rural Routes numbered at once. Every box properly set up will be numbered, just as boxes are numbered at postoffice. The boxes that set behind ditches, and in unhandy places to reach, will not be numbered but reported to department, as per orders, and service discontinued as to the boxes.

"We have met the enemy and they are ours."
Having won the championship series from Crowe's Lexington team. The Paris all-star aggregation went to Lexington Sunday, and before a crowd of 1,000 people, 500 of whom were enthusiastic rooters from this city, walked away with Strader's scalp dangling at their belt. Just think of it, defeating ten men, nine strong, professional ball players, the other a "lop-sided geezer" who essayed to umpire the game.

From start to finish every close decision was rendered adverse to the interests of the Paris team, and on several occasions Lindsey was so palpably wrong that even Lexington spectators hooted him down. The game which was intensely interesting and exciting was won on its merits and had Paris received anything like just decisions on the numerous close plays Lexington would have been shut out. The score:
Innings—1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Lexington..0 0 0 1 0 1 0 0 0-2
Hits—Paris 8, Lexington 6.
Errors—Paris 1, Lexington 2.
Batteries—Paris, Hanlon and Devaney; Lexington, Grinstead and Downing.
Struck Out—By Grinstead 2; by Hanlon 4.
Base on Balls—Off Grinstead 2; off Hanlon 2.

J. W. LANCASTER.

Now Is the Accepted Time.

The National Bitumen Co., which is resurfacing Main street, will soon finish their contract, which is admitted by all to be the acme of the street builder's art. S. R. Murray, who is superintending the work, was formerly with Warren Bros., and received the gold medal at the World's Fair, at St. Louis. Main street has been properly graded, in many places the new metal being twelve inches in thickness, and will turn water almost equal to an umbrella. The reconstruction of this, the main thoroughfare of the city, certainly adds to the beauty and attractiveness, especially that part in front of the court house. Considering the magnificence and architectural beauty of our new temple of justice, its attractive lawn and wide concrete pavements, it does seem that the Fiscal Court should, while the opportunity is their's, have the public square around the building rebuilt the same as Main street. The grading could be done by the county prisoners, which would reduce the cost considerably. This matter should be taken up at once, as the National Bitumen Company will remove its plant, which is cumbersome and costly, as soon as they finish Main street, and the opportunity would then be lost. Gentlemen of the Fiscal Court, now is the time to take up this matter, and when you have regraded and rebuilt the public square, the same as Main street, you will have removed what is a standing disgrace to the county and the bumpy and uneven condition of that thoroughfare, and will have added what is absolutely necessary to complete the beauty of the court house surroundings.

RENTING OF LAND

Having decided to move to Colorado on account of my health, I will rent publicly, on the farm, on Tuesday, October 31, 1905,

at 10 o'clock a. m., my home place of 187 acres. This farm is located 7 miles from Paris, on the Hume & Bedford pike. It is splendid producing land, and has on it 27 acres of orchard, in perfect bearing condition. It is one of the finest orchards in the state, and has in it every variety of fruit grown in this section.

There is 12 acres of land for garden, 8 acres for hemp or tobacco, 22 acres for corn, 20 acres for wheat, 8 acres for corn or tobacco, and 98 acres in grass.

The improvements consist of residence of 8 rooms, cellar, and closets; two tenant houses, one of four rooms and the other three, one of which is new and the other has been repaired so that it is as good as new. There is also a cattle barn for 20 head of cattle, stable with five box stalls, rat proof corn crib, and everything necessary on a first class farm.

The supply of water for man and beast is never failing, and two ponds have recently been cleaned out.

If you are looking for a rich and productive farm, this is the one you want. It will positively not be rented before the day advertised for the public renting, and will be rented to the highest and best bidder.

Paris, Ky., Tuesday, October 24, 1905.

THE two great parties are lining up for the battle of the ballots. Democracy—the ever living issue—the embodiment of the noblest sentiment that stirs our breast, will give battle for the principles that were at the birth of this government and will continue throughout its existence. Kentucky is a Democratic State and at the close of the day, November 7th, will see an added victory to her long list. The wavering doubts that seemed to possess her but a few years ago are dispelled, and Democracy again stands firmly entrenched in the hearts of the citizens of our grand old Commonwealth and the coming election will more than prove this assertion. Let Bourbon county lead in this great battle and give the largest Democratic majority ever cast in the county. We can do it, and we feel that every Democrat in the county will lend a helping hand to this end.

THE Republican Committee met Saturday afternoon and “jollied” each other for several hours and adjourned. They are making a “still hunt” in the magistrates races, and have an idea they are going to get a majority of the Fiscal Court. It is only a “pipe dream,” for if the Democrats do their duty, there is not a chance for them to win a single magistrate. They have no idea of winning with Ingram for County Judge, or with Peed for Jailer, but at the same time Democrats must not stay away from the polls, for we not only want to beat them, but we want to give them a trimming that will make an everlasting impression.

THE police has recovered $92,000 of the $101,000 stolen from the Adams Express Company at Pittsburg several days ago by the money clerk, Edward George Cunliffe. This mammoth corporation only paid Cunliffe a salary of $55 a month, and his duties were to handle hundreds of thousands of dollars daily, and only asked to give a $2,000 bond. This is a fair sample of how the grinding corporations tempt the young man to steal, not paying them enough wages to comfortably support a small family. This is especially true of the Adams Express Company, whose rates are simply extortionate.

To a great extent the juries of this country are largely responsible for mob law. A negro was taken from the jail at London, Ky., Tuesday night and hanged by a mob. The testimony of the witnesses were that the killing was an unprovoked one, the negro shooting a white man through the heart. The jury stood ten for hanging and two for life sentence, and consequently a mob did the rest.

THE Brathitt county grand jury fail to returned any indictments as to the assassination of James B. Marcum. The report said that the evidence was insufficient. If there could be an arrangement of some kind so the “rules could be suspended” and the Hargises and Marcums could shoot this thing out until both sides were exterminated the suffering public would offer no objections.

ONE of the most convincing signs of approaching winter is that “carbolic acid smell” which greets you when you get on the windward side of your neighbor. Cloth always smells that way when the moth balls are shaken out.

“The Philippines are quiet and contented under American rule.” Is that not a familiar remark! But how long has it been since you saw the announcement of the fact that we have an army of 18,375 men over there where there is so much quite and content?

DEMOCRATS, give your support, strong and undivided, to the nominees of your party. The Republicans have almost a full ticket in the field, but this is done to satisfy the “powers that be,” and with the hope that one or two of their candidates might slip in. Go to work, Democrats, and help elect your ticket and at the same time assist in the burying of the Republican party in Bourbon county.

THE BOURBON NEWS.

SWIFT CHAMP, - EDITOR AND OWNER

TUESDAY, OCT. 24, 1905.

Teachers' Association Great Success.

The Ashland District Teacher's Association convened in this city Friday morning. The meeting was held in the spacious Circuit Court room and was called to order by R. L. Garrison, of Georgetown, acting president of the association, with R. H. Shipp, of Owenton, as secretary, with Miss Susie Clay, of this city, as assistant secretary.

The welcome address on behalf of the city, was delivered by County Attorney Denis Dundon, while Hon. F. L. McChesney, Democratic nominee for Superintendent of County Schools, welcomed the guests on behalf of the teachers. The response was by J. D. Clark, Superintendent of Schools of Fayette county.

The association then got down to work in earnest. "The work of teachers from the standpoint of a minister," was discussed by Rev. Lon Robinson, of this city, while Dr. Chas. G. Daugherty handled the same subject from the stand point of a "doctor." Judge Harmon Stitt, from the standpoint of a lawyer, discussed the subject. Prof. W. H. Bourne, Superintendent of the Schools of Owen county, discussed "The relation of other professions as seen from the standpoint of a teacher." The next subject, "What the teacher can do in securing normal schools," was discussed by C. A. Leonard, of Cynthiana. State Superintendent of Public Instruction J. H. Fuqua, in a most logical manner, presented "The Ends and Aims of the Educational Improvement Commission," and the meeting adjourned Saturday morning.

About seventy-five of the delegates visited Elmendorf, leaving here on a special car at 3 o'clock. Friday evening the delegates were entertained at the Elk building by the teachers of the city and county, with a delightful banquet. Prof. W. F. Ramey, principal of Carlisle's public schools, responded to the toast, "What Normal Schools Will Do for the Educational Systems in Kentucky." Dr. J. J. Taylor, of Georgetown, delivered an interesting address on the subject of educational work.

The Association resumed its deliberations Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. The program was materially changed from that announced as several of the speakers did not arrive. The subject, "The Teacher Out of the School Room," was ably discussed by Prof. R. M. Shipp.

Dr. J. C. Lewis, president of the Sue Bennett School at London, Ky., delivered perhaps the most eloquent logical address of the meeting, a subject being, "The building of a character in the public school." He was followed by President Burr A. Jenkins in a scholarly address upon the different phases of educational work.

M. O. Winfrey, member of the State Board of Examiners, then addressed the association on the question of "State Normal Schools." "The Over-Crowded Curriculum," was discussed in an able manner by Prof. W. E. Williams, of Owenton. T. A. Hendrick, Miss Margaret Lewis, Miss Moore and Miss Fogg also delivered addresses that were heartily received. The association then proceeded to the election of officers for the ensuing year which resulted as follows:

President, R. H. Shipp, of Owenton; first vice president, Miss Lucy Patti, Superintendent of Public Schools of Franklin county; second vice-president, Prof E. M. Costello, of Paris, Ky.; secretary, L. D. Stucker, of Frankfort, Ky.

Versailles was selected as the next place of meeting. The association after the adoption of appropriate resolutions then adjourned to the basement, where they partook of a luncheon prepared by the teachers and patrons of the county schools.

More than 500 people surrounded the long tables from 1 to 2 o'clock, and, it is said, that enough was left to feed 500 more, which was gathered up and sent out to those in need. The tables were decorated with a variety of cut flowers, while about seventy-five of Paris' lovely girls waited upon the guests. The dinner consisted in part of old county ham, chicken, duck, turkey, salads, beaten biscuits, pickles, chow-chow, celery, apple, peach and cream pies, cakes in variety, hot coffee, etc.

Too much can not be said in praise of this bountiful and sumptuous spread. In its elegance, variety and detail, it far surpasses the big dinner given about fifteen years ago in honor of the Orphan Brigade at the fairgrounds. The delegates were profuse in their expression of the generous hospitality shown them, and the occasion was one long to be remembered.

Startling Mortality.

Statistics show startling mortality, from appendicitis and peritonitis. To prevent and cure these awful diseases, there is just one reliable remedy, Dr. King's New Life Pills. M. Flannery, of 14 Custom House Place, Chicago, says: "They have no equal for constipation and biliousness."

STOCK AND CROP.

—Elder L. H. Reynolds sold to W. E. Farris 96 acres of land, near North Middletown, at $62.50 per acre.

—R. B. Hutchcraft bought one hundred lb. steers at Mt. Sterling, at $3.10 per cwt. He also purchased W. J. Fitzpatrick forty 1,100 feeders at 3 3/4 cents.

—Jos. B. Frakes, agent for S. & S., shipped yesterday from Mt. Sterling 27 cars of export cattle to New York, that he had purchased in that county.

—Hardin Field this year raised 200 bushels of Irish potatoes on one acre. He sold 117 bushels to the warden of the penitentiary at Frankfort at 45c per bushel.

—The railroads are making preparations to ship 600 head of horses from J. B. Haggin's famous Rancho Del Paso ranch in California to New York City. It will take four trains of twelve cars each and will cost Mr. Haggin $50,000.

—Clarence A. McKay, one of the richest men in America, has decided to join the ranks of the millionaire breeders of thoroughbreds in Kentucky. He will locate his stud at Kingston Stock Farm, near Lexington, which he has leased from Baker & Gentry.

—Churchill Downs, the most historic race track in America, has been purchased by Col. W. E. Applegate, Jerome Respass, of Covington, Capt. S. S. Brown, of Pittsburg, and Matt Winn, president of the American Turf Association. The price paid is said to be $135,000.

—Late estimates indicate that the coming orange and lemon crops in California will be record breakers. Shipments, it is declared, will reach 35,000 cars, and may go to 40,000. The yield of the current year, as given by the Southern California fruit exchange shows that the last crop yielded to growers $7,000,000. The output of the coming year on the same basis, will produce $12,000,000.

—Of all the tobacco consumed in the civilized world statistics show that the United States burns up more than two-thirds, a total estimate of 440,000,000 pounds. The per capita consumption is 5.4 pounds, which is exceeded by the natives of Belgium, who use 6.21 pounds per annum each. Germany, with 201,783,000, and Russia, with 150,224,000, were the only other countries which last year consumed more than 100,000,000 pounds of tobacco. Belgium shows the highest per capita; the United States is second; Russia's is but 1.1 pounds and Italy's is even lower with 1.05 pounds.

—A Lexington correspondent to the Courier-Journal has the following to say of a Bourbon boy and a Bourbon stable:

"Jos. S. Hawkins, trainer and part owner of the stable of P. J. Millett & Co., has arrived here and will probably spend the winter in Lexington. He sent La Pucella and Leta Duffy from Louisville to Latonia in charge of Jack Baker, and the rest of his string have been turned out or returned to their owners. Mr. Hawkins made a record this season which is probably unequalled. He started out with a string of ten, all of which, except La Pucelle and Miss Doyle, were two-year-olds. With this bunch he won forty-seven races and was second and third innumerable times which he didn't try to count. Mr. Hawkins will start out next spring probably with a string of his own, and he may get together a stable for New Orleans."

RELIGIOUS.

—By a majority of one vote the Kentucky Synod of the Synod of the Southern Presbyterian church at Louisville accepted the report of the committee favoring Danville for the location of the college for the higher education of women. At the same time it was announced that James A. Shuttleworth, of Louisville, gives fourteen acres adjoining Caldwell College as an additional inducement for the location of the institution in Danville. This property is valued at $25,000.

The discussion of the Committee on the Higher Education of Women opened up the whole question of co-operation with the Northern church. It was claimed that such a step would lead the way to organic union. This does not finally dispose of the matter, for the committee has power only to confer with a similar committee from the Northern church, and must report any action for acceptance or rejection by the Synod of 1906.

Sable Island's Wild Horses.

Sable Island, which lies about eighty miles to the southward of Nova Scotia, consists of an accumulation of sand, forming a pair of ridges united at the two ends and inclosing a shallow lake; tracts of grass are to be met with in places, as well as pools of fresh water.

The droves of wild horses, or ponies, and herds of seals appear to be the chief mammalian inhabitants of the island. It is generally supposed that the original stock was landed from a Spanish wreck early in the sixteenth century, although some writers make the introduction much later.

Twenty-five years ago the number of ponies was estimated at 500; at the present day there are less than 200, divided into two troops.

Not more than two-thirds of these are pure bred, the remainder being the offsprings of mares crossed with introduced stallions.

The author comments on the striking likeness of these wild ponies to the horses of the Parthenon frieze and to the now exterminated tarpan of tartary. They also seem to resemble the wild horses of Mexico, although their coat is doubtless longer.

AMUSEMENTS.

—Throughout the South and West Alberta Gallatin is considered by theatregoers, press and critics, to be one of the greatest actresses on the stage to-day. Her presentation of the wonderful character of "Mrs. Alving," in Ibsen's famous play, "Ghosts," has endeared her to them beyond words and she is assured of an ovation whenever she appears in any city where that play was put on. This season she is starring in a piece of an entirely different nature. It is "Cousin Kate," beyond a question one of the cleverest society comedies ever staged. The Hudson Theatre, New York, was opened by it and for an entire season it ran there with unprecedented success. In London also the play had a season and was accorded the unstinted plaudits of the entire city.

At Paris Grand to-morrow night.

—Sullivan, Harris & Woods' next dramatic offering here to a public that fully appreciates their sound judgment, enterprise and liberality, will be a new play by Theodore Kremer entitled "Wedded and Parted," which is booked for the Grand one night only, Friday, Oct. 27th.

Honorable, loving, criminal, comic, unadulterated and mirthful characters drawn from actual city life, are kept working over time in four acts and eleven scenes of intermingled credulity, conspiracy, fraud, force, passion, sorrow, suffering, tears, shadow and sunshine, the end of which is "and they lived happily to the end of their long lives."

The original company identified with the melodrama's marked success, in the Metropolis and elsewhere will appear here, and scenically the production will be realistically surprising and attractive.

Exercise Boy Killed.

John Porter, aged eleven years, son of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Porter, of Lexington, was killed by being thrown from a yearling filly at the Kentucky Racing Association track at Lexington Wednesday morning. He was dragged a half mile, his foot catching in the stirrup. At almost every bound the horse took, the boy was kicked in the breast and face, and when the filly was stopped the boy's head and chest were a mass of bruises. He was alive when he was picked up and placed on a cot to be carried to a room at the track, but died before a physician could reach his side.

Beyond Comprehension.

The government report shows that so far the wheat crop is five million bushels, and the oat and barley crops two million bushels each behind the estimate on August 1. But the Chicago Inter-Ocean points out that these comparatively slight deficiencies are more than made up by the corn crop, which is likely to be more than 31,000,000 bushels more than was estimated on August 1. The Inter-Ocean says: "Already it is certain that the wheat crop will be above the average, and the yield of oats the second largest on record. But the wealth now maturing in America's corn is almost beyond comprehension. The corn crop is expected to be not less than 1,625,000,000 bushels, or 158,000,000 bushels more than the big crop of last year. If anyone has fretted a little over the weather of the last few days he may be consoled that such warmth is worth about $10,000,000 a day to the country in maturing the corn crop."
